HPE Certifications and Experience

HPE Master ASE - Storage Solutions Architect x 2

With two (2) HPE Master ASE - Storage SA's on staff, our team's dedication to HPE excellence is clearly evident. The HPE MASE - Storage certification is one of HPE's most distinguished certifications and HPE's highest storage credential. It signifies our credibility as technical experts in the latest storage technologies including Flash and Nimble Storage, Software-Defined Storage (SDS) and HyperConverged Appliances.

HPE ASE - Hybrid IT SA and HPE ASE - Server SA

These HPE certifications signify our expertise with HPE Hybrid IT and HPE Servers. It is a validation of our ability to help customers maximize their investments in HPE Hybrid IT and Server solutions.

HPE Portfolio - Gold Partner Status

As an HPE Gold Partner, PC Corp has special access to HPE resources, tools and offerings not available to other partners. We in turn use this access to maximize the return for our customers investing in HPE solutions. To earn Gold Partner status, a reseller must meet high levels of HPE product and technical certification goals. Below are just a few of our HPE certification accomplishments.
